FROM THE "SUN IRON BUILDING,"

At the S. E. corner of Baltimore and South sts.

Terms Cash in Advance:

For One Copy for Six Months or less	$1 00
For One Copy for One Year	1 50

THE WEEKLY SUN will renew its best efforts as a first-class News and Literary Journal. Every improvement of modern journalism—by which it is distinguished—will be maintained, and such attention be given to its several departments as will insure their continued interest, and whatever may be necessary to render them more complete will not be lost sight of.

Through no other medium can families and individuals in the towns and villages and rural districts of the country be so well supplied with proper literature, and a full knowledge of the world's whole news, from week to week.

MAKE UP CLUBS.

While the WEEKLY SUN is afforded at the low rate of $1 50 per annum to single subscribers, the CLUB rates are still lower, carrying the price down as low as one dollar per year when twenty-five copies or more are taken at one post office at a time, viz:

Club of Six Copies, One Year	$8 00
Club of Twelve Copies, One Year	15 00
Club of Fifteen Copies, One Year	18 00
Club of Twenty Copies, One Year	22 00
Club of Twenty-five Copies, One Year	25 00
Club of Thirty-five Copies, One Year	35 00

Parties, then, should get up CLUBS in their towns, villages and neighborhoods, and thus secure the advantage of these very low rates. Any postmaster or storekeeper in the county may easily accomplish this among his acquaintances, or any active person, male or female, do the same. The regular diffusion of the light and intelligence which such a journal affords will be a moral and social advantage in any neighborhood.

To those parties getting up clubs for the Weekly Sun, sent to one post office, we will mail hereafter to the address of any one sending us

HOME INDUSTRY.

The Manufactures of Philadelphia.

The Philadelphia Paint and Color Works and Wholesale Drug House of French, Richards & Co., Northwest corner of Tenth and Market Streets.

Our city has a world-wide celebrity for its medical colleges and its distinguished professors and practitioners of the medical and surgical art. It is entitled to equal renown for its extensive drug establishments. We supply the United States and countries south of us not only with doctors, but also with drugs. Possessed of a most salubrious climate itself, Philadelphia, like an angel of mercy, contributes more largely than any other American city to the relief of the sick in less favored places.

Messrs. French, Richards & Co. have, at the northwest corner of Tenth and Market streets, one of the finest buildings in the city, devoted entirely to the preparation and compounding of drugs on a large scale, and to a general wholesale jobbing trade in drugs, chemicals, paints, glass, etc.

The firm was established in 1844, by Clayton French, Esq., the present senior partner, and Wm. Richards, Esq. Another partner was subsequently added when the firm assumed the name of French, Richards & Co.

Mr. Richards died in 1858, and since then two new partners have been added, but the old firm name is still retained. They now carry on an immense business as manufacturers, importers, and jobbers, and own several large stores and warehouses, besides their principal manufactory at Crown and Callowhill streets. The last-named establishment comes most appropriately within the scope of this series of articles; yet we propose giving a hasty sketch of their buildings, and shall begin with the splendid store at tenth and market.

This is a large building six stories high, besides cellar or basement and sub-cellar. It has a wide frontage on Market street, and extends back a considerable distance on Tenth street. It is constructed in the most elegant and substantial style, the internal arrangements being particularly tasteful, convenient, and some of the rooms, as the offices, almost luxurious. It occupied over two years in building. The old store, upon the same site, was burned down in October, 1865. The present structure was completed and occupied in February, 1868, and is valued at upwards of $300,000.

There are three distinct buildings at this location, occupied by Messrs. French, Richards & Co., though all these are adjoining and connected with each other on the lower stories.

The main building, immediately at the corner, contains on the first floor the commodious and elegantly-furnished offices and counting-room. In the east part of the large room, opening on Market street, two members of the firm, assisted by several secretaries and attendants, receive customers and transact the active business of buying and selling. The desk and furniture generally are of massive black walnut, the ceiling is lofty, and everything about the room and its occupants calculated to create the most favorable impression. Druggists from other cities, and from the country, must surely go away from this establishment delighted with their reception, and therefore profited, even though they have neglected to make purchases.

The west side of the room, partly partitioned from the east side and fitted up in the same style, is occupied as the general counting-room by numerous clerks and book-keepers, under the supervision of another member of the firm. Opening into this room from the rear is an elegant little withdrawing room or private office, and the sample room, where the customer can be shown samples of anything from perfumery to paint, and from the costliest essences to the coarsest of medicinal roots and leaves. Tiny vials are ranged in rows on shelves, all around the little room, mysteriously labelled with long, unpronounceable Latin names.—Here the purchaser has an opportunity of making his selections, after careful inspection and tests as to quality.

A most wonderful thing about the establishment is the Hydraulic Hoisting Machine, extending from the bottom of the sub-cellar to the top of the sixth story, ninety feet. This curious and beautiful piece of mechanism is a practical application of the principle well known in natural philosophy, that a column of water, no matter how small if only sufficiently high, will balance any possible weight in a connecting tube. The same principle is sometimes exemplied by a toy called Hydrostatic Paradox. This elevator consists chiefly of a solid piston-rod, ten inches in diameter and ninety feet long, fitted loosely into an exceedingly strong iron tube, which is sunk its whole length in a hole drilled in the rock beneath the building. A frame work extends to the top of the house, and the piston-rod, with an ordinary platform attached near the top, plays up and down according as the water is pumped into the tube around it or is allowed to flow out by opening a valve in the bottom. All that is necessary to work the whole machine is a few gallons of water and a small steam engine capable of pumping this into the tubes. The only limit to the weight which may be hoisted in this manner is the strength of the tube containing the water, and this has stood a pressure on trial of a thousand pounds to the square inch.

The second story is devoted exclusively to the Jobbing Department.

Bins or drawers, containing every variety of drugs and chemicals, and plainly labelled, are conveniently and systematically arranged. A foreman has entire charge, receiving the orders from below, and filling them with the aid of numerous assistants.

The other stories above are used mainly for storage of the lighter drugs, and the multitude of roots, herbs, and leaves used in our modern pharmacopeia. The sixth or highest story is occupied by bales and bags of the very lightest substances, as leaves, corks, &c.

The newly-built part of the store is in two separate houses, simply adjoining. The one in the rear, and opening on Tenth street, is called the warehouse, and is filled with barrels, boxes, and packages of the heavier substances, such as paints, putty, oils, &c. the third floor of this part is devoted entirely to the storage of window glass, in which article this firm deals very extensively.

Adjoining the main store on the west, and having a frontage on Market street, is a building No. 1005, which escaped the fire of 1865, and which is now used by Messrs. French, Richards & Co., exclusively for the storage of glass. Here may be found all kinds of glass from the ordinary American window-glass, to the finest English and French plate glass, including a complete assortment of German and thick-plate mirrors of the best quality.

They import their own foreign glass direct from France, England, and Belgium. They import and manufacture also many varieties of engraved and decorated Glass.

We saw numerous fine specimens of this ornamental work in the building just mentioned.

Messrs. French, Richards & Co. ship their goods to all parts of the country, and have many orders from the West Indies and Central America. They employ in this branch of their business about fifty hands, besides fifty more at their manufactory, which is known as the Philadelphia paint and color works.

This is situated on Callowhill street, occupying all the space from crown street to York avenue, and extending seventy-two feet on the latter street.—It is four stories high exclusive of basement, which is occupied by an eighty-horse power engine, and a large mill for grinding of dentists' plaster. They manufacture here three-fourths of all the dentists' plaster used in the country.

In the upper stories are situated the other machinery necessary to carry on their extensive business, including twelve separate mills for the manufacture of paints. These are able to grind twenty tons of white lead daily when working at their full capacity. Large amounts of putty are also ground and prepared here.

Just across York avenue, opposite, they have a large ware-house extending from Fourth street to York avenue, five stories high excluding basement, and used for the storage of plaster, cement, glass, &c. This building is constructed in the strongest and most substantial manner, the first story of each front being of iron. In the basement there is an engine used to drive the hoisting apparatus. An ingenious and very convenient arrangement is a tunnel under the street, from the basement of this warehouse to the basement of the factory opposite. A narrow railroad track is laid in this tunnel, and hand trucks to convey plaster and other stores from one building to the other.

They have another large and substantial warehouse on York avenue, above Noble street, which is filled with barrels of calcined plaster and cement. Their calcined plaster is all made at Hillsboro, N. B., near the quarries. They have an arrangement with the mill owners there by which they have control of the best plaster which comes to this market, especially all that manufactured from selected stone expressly for the purpose packed in new barrels. Besides being thus careful to select the very best article, they put up nearly a half a bushel more to the barrel than any others engaged in the business.

In this plaster trade they undoubtedly have the inside track completely, and from their warehouses in Philadelphia ship it to almost all parts of the world.

Adjoining their warehouse, above Noble street, is a model stable, where are kept the eighteen to twenty horses used in hauling to and fro the goods of the firm.

We cannot close this sketch without a word of compliment for the energy, enterprise, and versatility which have built up so important an industry and extensive a trade in our city. Whatever of their stock can be manufactured here they are manufacturing, and the remainder they import at first hands from abroad. With a few more such firms Philadelphia would not only be confessedly the greatest manufacturing city of the country, but might also attain to the very formost rank as an importing city.

MARK TWAIN.

While upon his trip to Niagara, Mr Twain, met a British officer with the following result. He says:

At the principal hotel I fell in love with the Major of the Forty-second Fusileers, and a dozen other hearty and hospitable Englishmen, and they invited me to join them in celebrating the Queen's birthday. I said I would be delighted to do it. I said I liked all the Englishmen I had ever happened to be acquainted with, and that I, like all my countrymen, admired and honored the Queen. But I said there was an insuperable drawback I never drank anything strong upon any occasion whatever, and I did not see how I was going to do ample and proper justice to anybody's birthday with the thin and ungenerous beverages I was accustomed to. The Major scratched his head, and thought the matter over at considerable length, but there seemed to be no way of mastering the difficulty, and he was too much of a gentleman to suggest even a temporary abandonment of my principles. But by-and-by he said:

"I have it. Drink soda water. As long as you never drink anything more nutritious, there isn't any impropriety in it."

And so it was settled. We met in a large parlor, handsomely decorated with flags and evergreens, and seated ourselves at a table well ladened with creature comforts, both solid and liquid. The toasts were happy and the speeches were good, and we kept it up until long after midnight. I never enjoyed myself more in my life. I drank thirty-eight bottles of soda water.—But do you know that this is not a reliable article for a steady drink? It is too gassy. When I got up in the morning I was full of gas and as tight as a balloon. I hadn't an article of clothing that I could wear except my umbrella.

After breakfast I found the Major making grand preparations again. I asked what it was for, and he said this was the Prince of Wales' birthday. It had to be celebrated that evening.—We celebrated it. Much against my expectations we had another splendid time. We kept it up until some time after midnight. I was tired of soda, and so I changed for lemonade. I drank several quarts. You may consider lemonade better for a steady drink than soda water, but it isn't so. In the morning it had soured on my stomach. Biting anything was out of the question—it is equivalent to lock jaw. I was beginning to feel worried and sad, too.

Shortly after lunch I found the Major in the midst of some more preparations. He said this was the Princess Alice's birthday. I concealed my grief.

"Who is the Princess Alice?" I asked.

"Daughter of her Majesty the Queen," the Major said.

I succumbed. That night we celebrated the Princess Alice's birth day. We kept it up as late as usual, and really I enjoyed it a good deal. But I could not stand lemonade. I drank a couple of kegs of ice water.

In the morning I had the toothache and cramps and chilblains, and my teeth were on edge from the lemonade, and I was still pretty gassy. I found Major at it again.

"Who is this for?" I asked.

"His Royal Highness, the Duke of Edinburg," he said.

"Son of the Queen?"

"Yes."

"And this is his birthday.—you have not made any mistake?"

"No, the celebration is to come off to-night."

I bowed before the new calamity.—We celebrated the day. I drank part of a barrel of cider. Among the first objects that met my weary and jaundiced eyes the next day, was the Major, at his interminable preparations again. My heart was broken and I wept.

"Whom do we mourn this time?" I said.

"The Princess Beatrice, daughter of the Queen."

"Here, now," I said; "it is time to inquire into the thing. How long is the Queen's family likely to hold out. Who comes next on the list?"

"Their Royal Highnessess Anne, Mary, Elizabeth, Gertrude, Augusta, William, Simon, Ferdinand, Irene, Sophia, Susannah, Socrates, Sampson, ——"

"Hold! There's a limit to human endurance. I am only mortal. What man dare do, I dare! but who can celebrate this family in detail, and live to tell it, is less or more than man. If you have to go through this every year, it is a mercy I was born in America, for I havn't constitution enough to be an Englishman. I shall have to withdraw from this enterprise. I am out of drinks. Out of drinks, and thirteen more to celebrate. Out of drinks just on the outskirts of the family, as you may say. I am sorry enough to have to withdraw, but it is plain enough that is has to be done. I am full of gas, and my teeth are loose, and I am afflicted with scurvy, toothache, measles, the mumps and lock jaw, and wrenched with cramps, and the cider last night has given me the cholera.—Gentlemen, I mean well, but really I am not in a condition to celebrate the other thirteen."

Give us a rest.

THE YOUNG WIFE'S SECRET.

"Now, Eliza, after such a delightful were wedding holiday as we have had, would it not be a good time to tell me your secret?"

A young and happy looking couple seated at breakfast, on the morning after their short honeymoon trip, when this question was asked.

"A better time dear James, could not be chosen, but would you really like to hear it now?"

"Why not? The sooner we begin to act upon it the better."

"This is true, James, but would you not prefer to find it out for yourself?"

"Oh, I have been trying to guess ever since you first told me of it. Perhaps, Eliza, it is no secret after all?"

"I assure you that it is, and a most valuable one, too."

"Is it much known?"

"Well, dear, I can hardly say; but judging from appearances, I should think not."

"How came you to know?"

"I learned it from my mother; she often told me that all happiness was owing to it. Where she alive now she would witness its effect to us."

"You quite puzzle me, Eliza; it must be something extraordinary, if, as you say, it prevents man and wife ever having a second quarrel. You may as well tell me at once."

"I am quite ready to tell you, James; but I am sure that your pleasure will be greater in finding it out yourself.—Fortune favors the persevering.

"Ah, I know now; you mean that we are to count a hundred; or fill our mouth with water; or twirl a chain, or some such way of getting cool when we happen to get angry."

"No; James, none of these; it is much more certain, and attended with better effects."

"Perhaps you mean that we should shut ourselves up in different rooms, or not speak to one another for a week?"

"No, dear James, none so cruel as that. Heaven forbid that we should ever be driven to such extremities.—By presevering in my secret, we shall always love one another as truly as we do now. Our trust in one another will increase, and the longer we live the happier we shall be. You will very likely say that it is no secret after all, now that I tell you: the surest way to avoid a second quarrel is never to have a first!"

"Capital!" exclaimed James, laughing; "I will stick to that with all my heart." He would have liked to prolong the conversation, but the wedding holiday was over, and he wished to be punctual at work. So taking up his hat, he imprinted a good-by kiss on his wife's rosy lips, resolving, as he went out, to put her secret into practice.

A DUEL CLERK.

Pickernel, a successful dry goods merchant of Boston, was waited upon at his hotel by a gentleman-farmer who was desirous of getting a boy, for whom he was guardian, a "place" in Boston—of course he was an uncommon smart boy, quick at figures, strong of intuition, and one every way fit, as he should "judge" to become a merchant. Pickernel thought it over, and said he would try and make a place for him. In due time the boy arrived at Pickernel's store, his broad face ruddy with health, and soapy from the morning wash, his hair slicked, his clothes new and uncomfortable, and a stiff dickey cutting his ears. He announced himself as the boy, &c.

"Ah, you are the boy are you?" said Pickernel.

"Yes, I suppose so," replied the youngster.

"Well come in here, then; I am very busy but I will examine you in a few practical questions.

The boy came in, siting down on the desk, swung his heels underneath it as though he felt entirely at home, waiting the questions.

"Well," said Pinckernel "suppose a lady should come in here, and buy a dress of fifteen and a half yards of calico for eleven and a half cents a yard, what would it come to?"

The boy looked at his questioner, at the ceiling, at the floor, in a state of great bewilderment.

"How much caliker?" he asked.

"Fifteen and a half yards."

"What price?"

"Eleven and a half cents."

He thought a moment.

"Well," said he, "I'm darned if I b'lieve any woman ever wanted so much cloth for a dress as that."

This was throwing up the sponge, and Pickrenal put another question.

"How much would five and a half pounds of tea come to, at seventy five cents and three quarters per pound?"

He received this pretty much the same as the other, and after waiting a minute he asked—

"Was it green or black tea?"

Without answering, Pickernel put another question—

"Suppose I should send you out with a two-dollar bill, and you shou'd by fourteen and a half pounds of beef at seven and a half cents a pound, how much money would you have left?"

The boy looked at him for an instant and then indulged in a low whistle.

"You don't suppose," said he, "you can get beef anywhere at seven and a half cents a pound, do ye?"

Pickernal gave up at this. He asked him no more questions, but sent him back next day with a letter stating that he didn't think he would answer.

A FLIRT NICELY BEATEN IN HER OWN GAME.

A few evenings since a gushing Trojan youthess condescended to favor a certain young man with her company to a hop in——hall,——After arriving she concluded to receive the attentions of another gentleman in the room, to the total exclusion of her escort. The latter accepted the situation without exhibiting any sign of displeasure, not even demuring when he discovered, at the termination of the festivities, that the young lady was about to outrage courtesy and propriety to the extent of allowing his more favored rival to accompany her home.

Meeting the young lady shortly afterward, he gallantly accepted the explanation she offered, and to prove his unselfish devotion and forgiving spirit, he requested her company for a future evening to the theatre, to which she of course assented. Last evening, about seven and a half o'clock, saw the generous Adonis and his female friend on their way to the temple of the drama.—On arriving at the head of the stairs, the young man suddenly discovered that he had inadvertently left the tickets which he had purchased that afternoon, in an adjoining saloon. Stating the case to his fair friend, and requesting her to remain where she was for a moment, he started down stairs for the missing tickets, and forgot to come back.

After waiting for his return a reasonable time, the young lady concluded that she had been nicely beaten at her own game and started down stairs chop-fallen, and no doubt completely out of sorts to think that she had so innocently fallen into a well-set trap. On reaching the sidewalk she discried, on the opposite side of the street, a knot of male friends of the fully avenged lover, who had assembled to witness her defeat and discomfiture.

The breeding and rearing of tame rabbits might be made a profitable business. They require much the same food as sheep. Rabbits would be eagerally sought after in our markets, and are equal in flavor to the turkey, when fed on proper food. The better the food given to them, the better will be their flesh; as is usually the case in feeding all animals. If some of our farmers who have a good location, would give the business a trial it would not invoke much expense.

In the city or country the benefits to be derived from a commodious, well arranged cellar are numerous. A cellar should not only be proof against frost, but also against heat and moisture. Ventilation and light should be under command—to be admitted or excluded at pleasure. Two-thirds of the cellar should be under the ground-level; the wall should be of stone, brick being liable to soften and crumble from the effect of moisture. In very dry localities, brick may be used, but stone is better. The drainage should be perfect, and the floor should be flags or bricks, and sloped toward the sewer, in order to carry off any water that may be spilled upon it. A pen-stock or pump in the cellar will be found very useful. We have no space here to enumerate the great variety of articles which may be safely stored in a cellar, our object being to show that it may be made very servicable for keeping house plants.

A DAMAGING ADMISSION.

A speech was made in Congress, the other day, by Hon. Henry L. Dawes, of Massachusetts, in the course of which that honorable gentleman called his party to account for their extravagance in expending the public moneys. He said that he was astounded to find, on a comparison of the expenditures of Ex-President Johnson's administration with those of President Grant's, that the latter exceeded the former by Nine Millions of Dollars per annum!

Now Mr. Dawes is a Radical, and a Massachusetts Radical at that. He ranks among the ablest and most influential representatives of his party on the floor of Congress. Doubtless, if a Democratic Congressman had made the statement that the present administration costs the people of the United States Nine Millions more per annum than did that of Andy Johnson, the average Radical mind would not have received it as truth. But Mr. Dawes must be believed. He is our adversaries' own witness. His testimony against the Democracy in times past, was made to tell in favor of the candidates of his party. Now, when he testifies against his own political associates, his evidence is certainly not less credible than when it was given on the other side.

Nine Millions of Dollars! Think of it! It is no longer a matter of wonder that the tax gatherers are so busy, that the people groan under greater burdens of taxation than ever before, that the revenues of the Federal Government are swolen to greater volume than at any former period. And whilst the people are compelled to pay Nine Millions of Dollars per annum more for the privilege of being governed by a congresional oligarchy, than they paid for the constitutional rule of Andy Johnson, price of grain, the wages of labor and the value of property have greatly declined since the advent of the Grant regime. Is Congress doing its duty, when it permits a derangement of the money market to take place which brings disaster and ruin, to the business of the country whilst, at the same time it asks that the people, notwithstanding the shrinkage of values, shall pay Nine Millions more than formerly for the support of the Government? Should not taxation become lighter, rather than heavier, with the decline in the price of grain and the wages of labor? These are questions which the voter must decide for himself when he deposits his ballot at the Congresional election this autumn. We propound them just now, so that they may be well pondered before election-day. We ask no party judgment, but just a little reflection, a little sober, serious, steady thought.

DISUNION.

Georgia, after having been re-admitted into the Union, has been re-kicked-out. Virginia, after complying with all the odious requirements of the reconstruction acts, vainly knocks at the doors of Congress for admission. Tennessee is threatened with exclusion, and Mississippi and Texas are still out in the cold. It will soon be five years since the war closed, and yet the Union is not restored. The Radical politicians in Congress have conspired to keep out the States which are not under the complete domination of their own miserable tools. Because Georgia is not a Radical State, she is not allowed representation in Congress; because Tennessee has thrown off the yoke of Brownlow, she is to suffer dismemberment from the Union. The old New England Disunionists, the men who pronounced the Union a "League with Death," and the Constitution a "Covenant with Hell" are in full and absolute control of the Radical party. The Union element which ruled the party during the war, is completely overborne by the Sumners and Wilsons and Hamlins who draw their inspiration from Wendell Phillips and W. Lloyd Garrison. How much better is New England Disunion than Southern Secession?

DAWES' expose of the extravagances of Grant's administration, in a speech delivered in the House, the other day, fell like a huge bomb shell into the Radical camp. No matter how obnoxious the dose, it must be swallowed by the radical brethren, for is not Dawes a shining light in the congregation of the "trooly loil?"

GRANT'S administration, according to Dawes' statement, will be a very expensive one to the p ople of this country. It has already cost the people over NINE MILLIONS more than Johnson's for the same period! "Republican" advocates of retrenchment and reform, what think you of the picture?

THE CAT OUT OF THE BAG.

J. Cessna's Little Game Exposed.

The Fulton Republican, of last week, divulges some of the secrets connected with the intrigue in this Senatorial district by which Mr. Stutzman was forced to withdraw and Mr. Scull was substituted as the Radical candidate. The editor of the Republican was one of the conferees from Fulton county, in the conference which nominated Stutzman. See how he "goes for" Cessna's scalp:

[From the Fulton Republican of Jan. 20.]

The XXth Senatorial Difficulty.

During the political campaign of last fall, we promised that at some future day we would give the particulars of the Senatorial fight in this district; the nomination of Alexander Stutzman, the manner in which he was shoved off the track, and how. where, and when, Ed. Scull was substituted for Stutzman.

We would have published the facts at the time, and let the people of this District know who was and is responsible for the blunder committed, had we not been afraid that it might damage Mr. Scull's chances and be an injury to the party. But now that Findlay has received his seat, and Scull's chances can not be effected by it, it is due to ourselves, and the people of the District to put the responsibility where it belongs.

In the beginning of the campaign, Bedford County presented the name of Capt. Mullen, a gallant soldier, and upright man, who received the primary nomination. Somerset next presented Mr. Schrock, and the Hon. Alexander Stutzman, of whom Mr. Stutzman received a large majority of votes cast on account of his great personal popularity. Fulton County presented five names at the County Convention, some of whom were good men, and personally popular; and J. B. Cessna, Esq., received the majority of votes in Convention, on the 15th ballot, after a warm contest. Mr. Cessna selected for conferees to meet similar conferees from Bedford and Somerset, H. E. Shafer, Esq., David Hughes, Esq., and Jonathan Hess, Esq. Capt. Mullen's Conferees were Mr. Williams, Conley, and Minnich; Hon. A. Stutzman, had selected Hon E. D. Yutzy, Hon. H. B. Barnes, and Coffroth.

The Conference met in Bedford on the 25th of August at 10 o'clock, and proceeded to ballot for Senator. After balloting different times, that day, and each candidate having but 3 votes the Conference adjourned until evening.—During the evening Session the result was the same as in the afternoon, and Conference adjourned until next day. During Wednesday evening Hon. John Cessna tried to make it evident that his brother Jonathan must be slaughtered,—that Capt. Mullen must be defeated, that Mr. Stutzman must withdraw, and Mr. Koontz or Mr. Scull must be the compromise candidate, and the way must be made clear for HON. JOHN CESSNA'S re-nomination in 1870. Of Fulton County he was not much afraid, as his brother Jonathan would keep it straight; of Bedford he would take care if Somerset got the Senator, and Somerset could not claim Senator and Congressman both. Mr. Cessna thought it absolutely necessary that Fulton, Bedford and Somerset be all right, if it would be possible for him to get a re-nomination in the District, as Adams and Franklin Counties were dissatisfied with his disposition of the District patronage. Of course there were several Conferees who were too stupid to see the "point," for Mr. Cessna, and unwilling to be made the tool of John Cessna in a game of that kind.

When the Conference assembled on Thursday morning, the result was the same. An adjournment took place until 1 o'clock, when after balloting several times, some of the Conferees changed off, voting for different candidates, but not changing enough to elect any candidate. After adjournment, Mr. John Cessna sent invitations to the Washington Hotel for two of the Conferees from Somerset, and two from Fulton to come to his law office, which they did; during which time he urged upon the Conferees the propriety of throwing Stutzman overboard, and insisting upon some new man.

On Friday morning Jonathan Cessna asked a conferee from Somerset to unite with him upon a new man from Somerset, throw Stutzman overboard, and he, Jonathan, would have his Conferees vote for the new man. But unfortunately for John Cessna and his brother Jonathan, there were Conferees from Fulton who would not be voted. And it is but justice to the Conferee from Somerset, to say that he would not accept the proposition.—The vote during Friday and Friday night was about the same, except that Mr. Hughes and Hess from Fulton occasionally voted for Stutzman and Mullen. Our county was entitled to the nomination, and our claim was recognized by both the Conferees from Somerset and Bedford, but strenuous objections urged against the man whom we presented; and public avowals were made that if we had made any other nomination, we would have received the candidate at once. On Saturday forenoon the result was the same; Mr. Hess and Hughes occasionally voting for Stutzman and Mullen; just before meeting in the afternoon, Mr. Hughes made us a proposition that we would go down and vote for Mr. Stutzman, and settle the matter. When Conference met Mr. Hughes voted twice for Stutzman, and on the next ballot H. E. Shafer voted also for Mr. Stutzman, electing him, when the Bedford Conferees threatened to withdraw, and Mr. Hughes asked permission to withdraw his vote, which at request of H. E. Shafer was granted. What Mr. Hughes' object was in acting thus, we are at a loss to know. But either his proposition in our room to vote for Stutzman was to sound us how we stood, or his voting for Stutzman was to flatter the Somerset Conferees, he expecting that he might be the compromise candidate, as some of the Somerset Conferees had said to him, that if he had received our county nomination they would have nominated him; and seeing that the nomination of Stutzman spoiled that hope, asked to withdraw his vote. The Bedford Conferees asking time to consider, the Conference adjourned. During the adjournment, Hon. John Cessna was very busy; but whether he advised the Conferees from Bedford to withdraw or not, we are unable to say, but he did advise two of the Fulton Conferees to withdraw, and break up the Conference. When the Conference met in the evening, the Bedford Conferees withdrew, and and H. E. Shafer voting with the Conferees from Somerset, nominated Mr. Stutzman. This ended the Conference.

After Mr. Stutzman had been nominated, a few of the politicians from Bedford raised a hue and cry against Mr. Stutzman; and received encouragement from the Chambersburg "Repository," Cessna's organ and the organ of a few Philadelphia politicians, by whom the greater part of the office (it is alleged) is owned.

And now we will give briefly the whole connection of the Philadelphia "ring" including McClure, Mann, Quay, Hamersly, Covode and Cessna, and the smaller lights. Mr. Stutzman having voted last winter against the Metropolitan Police bill, was threatened with death by Philadelphia roughs, and of course they were anxious that some other man should come from this District, as they expected to bring up the same bill this winter. And Mr. Cessna having promised, it is alleged, to give an appointment under the Revenue, to a Franklin County man he was desirous of getting Mr. Stutzman off the track, and Mr. Scull on, so that an appointment could be made for Franklin County. And Mr. Russell of Bedford had probably an interest in the matter, which caused him to take the part he did at Bedford at the public meeting, against Stutzman.

John Cessna having been fairly defeated, in his choice in the Conference, determined to force the regular nominee off the track, and put on a man who would answer his purpose. He had proposed the name of Mr Scull during the Conference, and the same reason was given by his friends that he himself had given before the primary election, why he did not want the nomination. Namely: That it would not pay him, to give up an office which he held for four years, and probably for eight years, which paid him a salary of about $4,000 a year, for one that would pay only $1,000 a year, for three years, and would have to pay about $1,000 for expenses during the compaign. But this was no obstacle in John Cessna's way. Was not John Covode, his friend, for whom he had made an infamous report in Congress, Chairman of the State Central Committee? And did he not have control of the campaign money? Anyhow, Mr. Cessna showed a letter from Covode, or a dispatch, requesting him, Stutzman and Scull to come to Philadelphia, to "fix" up the matter. They went, and when they came home, Mr. Stutzman withdrew, and Scull's name was substituted. Mr. Stutzman's expenses were paid, we were informed; but whether Mr. Scull received enough to balance his loss or not we don't know. Of course it was nothing to Mr. Cessna, this little arrangement.—So outrageous was this proceeding that the honest voters of Somerset County utterly refused to vote for Mr. Scull. They knew it was a trick of John Cessna's, and that Mr. Scull and Stutzman had been duped. It was for this reason, and no other, that Mr. Scull was not elected; for it is not contended that he had a majority of votes cast. Mr. Cessna tried to explain Scull's defeat, by ascribing it to some oil speculations, and because Stutzman had helped to defeat Scull; but this is not so, as he well knows. Mr. Stutzman rode day and night after his return, urging his party to support Scull.

If Mr. Stutzman was an objectionable candidate, and the nomination was to go to Somerset County, it should have been given to Mr. Schrock, as he was next on the list at the primary meetings held.

When the Legislature met, John Cessna, was at Harrrisburg manipulating the affair, and we may say, that had he not been so justly loathed and contemned by honest members, Mr. Scull would have probably received his seat. But any man's connection with John Cessna, politically, will surely politically damn him.

We believe Mr. Cessna is responsible for the defeat of the District, and we believe that he has also defeated himself for a renomination for Congress. We advised him some time ago that if he wanted a renomination, he should attend to his Congressional duties, and not engage so assiduously in fixing up the District for a renomination.

We have now given the facts in this case and leave the people to judge who is responsible for our defeat.

IF a Democrat had said half so much of the corrupt and extravagant doings of the present administration, as did Dawes, a Radical member of Congress from Massachusetts, the whole pack of loil hounds would have barked at his heel, and cried out, Copperhead! disloyal! treason! But as the expose comes from a prominent member of the radical family, what will they do?

Under the blessed state of things existing in Georgia, no one need be surprised to hear of the enacting of scenes familiar to Poland and Ireland. A notorious scoundrel named Norris, has been dispatched by the Radical Satrap, Terry, with a gang of soldiers, to a peaceable county in the State, with orders to arrest and carry off the principal citizens. Norris has taken along a black list of one hundred and fifty gentlemen, and has established himself in the house of a citizen, whom he turned out to make room, and has inaugurated a reign of terror. Men are being seized and dragged from their beds at night, and are hunted by armed soldiers through the woods. The women are plunged into the deepest distress by anxiety for the fate of their husbands and male relations. Norris was formerly Sheriff of Warren County, and made many enemies by his insolence and cruelty, and General Terry has given him this opportunity to wreak his vengeance on those who have offended him. All this is taking place in the "land of the free and the home of the brave"—the great American 'republic' so called.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.

In the United States Senate yesterday, after the presentation of an avalanche of petitions for the abolition of the franking privilege, on motion of Mr. Wilson, the bill prohibiting retired officers from being assigned to duty which entitles them to full pay for their services was taken up and passed. The Senate then went into debate upon the Virginia Bill. On motion of Mr. Stewart the Senate bill was laid on the table, and the bill passed by the House on Saturday was taken up. Mr. Edmunds offered to amend by requiring the imposition of an oath in the cases of State officers, that the incumbents are not ineligible under the fourteenth amendment. After a long debate this amendment was voted down. Mr. Morrill opposed the House bill with vehemence, and asserted his fear that the Republican party was committing suicide. Mr. Davis, of Kentucky, interjected the sage remarking that the Republican party's inclination to commit suicide was because it felt it ought to be hung. Without action the Senate adjourned. In the House a large number of bills and resolutions were introduced and referrred to appropriate committees. Among the former the most important were: to repeal the tonnage tax on American vessels, to improve Mobile harbor, to dispose of the public lands in Florida, Alabama, Mississippi and Arkansas; to pay one year's salary as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court to the family of Edwin M. Stanton; to declare null and void all acts done by legislative, executive, and judicial officers laboring under the disabilities of the fourteenth amendment, and to establish a postal telegraphic system in connection with the Post-office Department. The House went into consideration of Mr. Judd's bill to apportion the representation of the several States in the House of Representatives for the Forty-second Congress. Mr. Judd and others addressed the House, and it was evident from the tenor of the debate that a bitter sectional feeling is growing up between the East and West. The House adjourned after further unimportant business.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.

The admission of Virginia hangs fire in the Senate. There was a dull, prosy debate yesterday; a talking against time while the extremists are devising new measures to keep the State out in the cold. The prospects now are that Virginia will not be admitted upon the easy terms agreed to by the House. Among the new bills introduced into the Senate was one by Mr. Abbott to increase the efficiency of the army. In the House, the sensation was a stirring, slashing speech by Mr. Dawes, of Massachusetts, upon the extravagance of Grant's administration. Mr. Dawes told plain and cutting truths, and his Radical associates gazed upon him with open mouths, astounded by the explosion in their own camp. The Democrats should immediately publish the speech of the ablest of the Massachusetts Congressmen as a campaign document. Mr. Kelley attempted to reply, but was cut off by the expiration of the morning hour. The House discussed Mr. Judd's apportionment bill, and referred it to the Committee of the Whole. General Slocum introduced bills for the erection of a post-office and other government buildings in Brooklyn, and for the removal of the Brooklyn Navy-yard.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.

The straight-out Radicals of the Senate obtained their first victory in the Virginia fight yesterday. After another debate of a couple of hours, a vote was taken on Mr. Edmond's amendment imposing a test-oath on the members of the Virginia Legislature, and it resulted in the affirmative—45 to 16. The only Radicals conservative enough to vote with the Democrats were Messrs. Ferry, of Connecticut; Kellogg, of Louisiana; Ross, of Kansas; Stewart, of Nevada; and Trumbull, of Illinois. Mr. Nye afterwards changed his vote to the negative. The Senate also discussed the question of abolishing the franking privilege. Several more bills were introduced to give away public lands to railroad corporations. Mr. Trumbull reported adversely to the bill allowing States to determine the qualifications of witnesses in the United States courts. In the House of Representatives, two Pennsylvanians, Kelley and Dickey, attempted to reply to Dawes' speech charging the administration with gross extravagance. The plain truths of Dawes have made the Radical Congressmen sick with apprehensions of the consequences of the exposure. The House likewise discussed the pension and West Point appropriation bills. More petitions against the franking privilege were presented.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.

General Nathaniel Greene, the revolutionary hero, was the subject of eulogistic speeches in the Senate yesterday, the occasion being the presentation of his statue from the State of Rhode Island to the national capitol. Mr. Anthony made the offering, and Mr. Sumner the senatorial response. Two other Radical Senators indulged in little speeches. The old patriot would turn in his grave if he knew that the men who are oppressing old Virginia were his eulogists. Mr. Casserly introduced a bill providing that public lands in California shall be open to entry by homestead and pre-emption settlers only. Mr. Conkling, from the special committee, reported a substitute for the House Census bill. It directs that the census shall be taken on the old plan, under direction of the United States marshals. Mr. Ramsey brought forward his bill to establish a postal telegraph system and to incorporate the United States Postal Telegraph Company. The Virginia bill was taken up and discussed. Drake had a new obstruction amendment prohibiting Virginia from ever hereafter altering her constitution so as to deprive the darkies of suffrage. After several speeches, it was agreed to bring the bill to a final vote at 4 o'clock this afternoon. In the House of Representatives the proceedings were unusually spicy. The League Island job was up, and Mr. Schofield, of Pennsylvania, attempted to answer Mr. Dawes. A sharp encounter of personalities took place, during which Mr. Dawes insinuated that Mr. Schofield was no gentleman. Later, when the House plunged into a debate on the whole free-trade question, pending the passage of a resolution to print Mr. Well's report, Mr. Logan insinuated that Mr. Kelley was a liar. The Western Radicals generally sided with the Democrats in favor of Mr. Wells. Mr. Bingham asked leave to introduce a ridiculous bill, making it an offence punishable with fine and imprisonment for any person to propose to repeal the action of a State Legislature ratifying any proposed amendment to the Constitution. Mr. Eldridge objected. Mr. Hooper, the Mormon delegate, presented memorial, signed by 22 000 citizens of Utah, praying admission as a State. The House passed the Military Academy appropriation bill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.

Virginia was rejected by the Senate yesterday. The debate was marked with a great speech by Mr. Trumbull, who talked for an hour to a most attentive audience against the monstrosities of the ultra wing of his party. Sumner came in for his most powerful invective, and in the course of his speech he thundered forth against the Massachusetts Senator the inevitable accusation of falsehood which now accompanies excited discussions between Radical orators. Drake's obstruction amendments were tacked on to the bill by small majorities, many of the moderate men, as Trumbull, Carpenter, and Conkling, voting with the Democrats; but the bill as amended finally passed by a strict party vote, 47 to 10. It now goes back to the House for renewed action. Previous to the Virginia debate Mr. Pomeroy proposed a sixteenth amendment to the constitution, conferring suffrage upon women. It was referred to the Judiciary Committee. Mr. Patterson introduced a bill to abolish the Freedmen's Bureau and to provide a Bureau of Education (for negroes). Little of interest transpired in the House of Representatives. Butler attempted to get a chance to reply to Dawes' speech, but was choked down by the persistent efforts of Benjamin, of Missouri. To-day is buncombe day in the House.

An important bill has just been introduced into the Legislature of Pennsylvania. It prohibits the carrying of pistols, whether loaded or unloaded, unless a certificate of the mayor of a city or from a justice of the peace is obtained. The law further requires all persons obtaining such permits to register their names, their business, and to specify the motives for carrying such pistol, and that if any injury shall result to a person by the use of a pistol, the presumption of law and fact shall be that the person using such pistol, and causing thereby bodily injury, maliciously intended to kill the person so injured, unless he can prove to the satisfaction of the jury that he used said pistol in the necessary protection of his person.

The new bayonet legislature of Mississippi have ratified the fifteenth amendment. A special dispatch to a Memphis paper says that Eggleston and Ames will, without doubt, be elected United States Senators. Eggleston is a carpet-bagger from Ohio.—Ames is a carpet-bagger from Maine, and, as military commander over Mississippi, has been a willing and despicable tool of his Radical masters in Congress. Neither of these embryo "Senators" have been in Mississippi more than three years, and neither has a single interest in common with the people whom they will pretend to represent.

The Rhode Island Legislature has swallowed the fifteenth amendment, but the dose went down hard. The trouble with the Radical majority was that by the adoption of the amendment enfranchisement will be bestowed upon several thousand Democrats, who by the unjust laws of the State, have been debarred from voting.—This will give the State to the Democrats—a prospect not altogether pleasant for Messrs. Anthony and Jenckes. As Mr. Sprague is half way out of the Radical party, a political revolution in Rhode Island would just suit him.

Great preparations are being made at Portland, Boston and Peabody, Mass., for the the funeral ceremonies of George Peabody. Robert C. Winthrop is to deliver the address in Boston, and Governor Chamberlin is to be the orator at the Portland obsequies. The honors to the dead philanthropist will be of an unusual and imposing character all along the route from Maine to the final resting place.

More unkindness to the noble African! Governor Geary, of this state, was grandly inaugurated at Harrisburg, on the 13th inst., by the aid of a procession of military and fire companies. Because a black regiment was allowed in the line all the fire companies except two, deserted in anger.—They will be punished by the loss of their charters.

The sleeping-car of the mail train on the Tennessee Road, which left Lynchburg on Friday evening last, was thrown from the track, and, after being dragged some distance, was precipitated down a bank and dashed to pieces. A young matron of Bridgeport, Maine, aged 15 years, recently made an addition to the census, with the assistance of her mother, aged 32; her grandmother, aged 61, and her great grandmother, aged 72, thus compressing five generations into the smallest compass on record.

TO CONSUMPTIVES.—The Advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption, is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge,) with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, etc. The object of the advertiser in sending the Prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceive, to be invaluable; and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing.

Parties wishing the prescription, will please address REV EDWARD A. WILSON,

Williamsburg, Kings County, New York.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills, will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint, and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the liver, and put it to work: then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens in the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivalled success in the treatment of pulmonary consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe, a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall-bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care), that will unlock the gall-bladder and starts the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the Alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills, or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has Consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abscesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood: then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

When there is no lung disease, and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all billious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 225 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparations with the same remarkable success. Full directions accompanying each, make it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless the patient wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond Street, New York, every other Tuesday, and at No. 35 Hanover Street, Boston, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5. Office hours at each city from 9 A.M. to 3 P.M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half-dozen Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this Sarsaparilla: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Ulcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

ANOTHER LECTURE.—The second of a series of temperance lectures, was delivered in the court house, on last Monday evening, by the Rev. H. Heckerman. The evening was miserable, yet the house was filled to its utmost capacity. The lecturer did himself and his subject ample justice, which was highly appreciated by the audience as evinced by their marked attention throughout.

The Cumberland Alleganian, in speaking of the mild weather, in that section, says:

jan27w3 A. L. DEFIBAUGH.

ACQUITTED.—A. Howard Crewitt, tried last week, at Huntingdon, for the murder of Miles Hampson, in October last, has been acquitted. The trial lasted for nearly a week, and is said to have been one of the most remarkable and exciting ones that ever took place in that county. The Monitor says, "Throughout the trial much feeling was manifested by the friends of each party, and we will be fortunate indeed if that feeling passes away without violations of law or business and social estrangments."

WILL HE DO IT?—Mr. Scull declared immediately after the election that he would not contest if Mr. Findlay was admitted to the Senate on a prima facie case. Will he now be as good as his word? Or has he tied himself so securely to John Cessna's coat tail as to be willing to allow himself to be forced into a seat to which he knows he has no moral or legal right, merely to gratify the aspirations of an ambitious and unscrupulous politician. We shall see what the honorable gentleman will do.

DARING TRICK.—After the reward was offered for the arrest of the escaped "jail birds," two strangers of plausible appearance and conversation, represented to the Sheriff that they were Baltimore detectives and were after "our boys." They were supplied with a horse each by the Sheriff in his anxiety as a good officer to secure their arrest, but it is now evident that they were horse thieves and perhaps aiders of the runaway prisoners, others in the city having also been swindled by them—Times, Cumberland.

A DRY PORTABLE VINEGAR.—Wash well half a pound of white tartar with warm water, then dry it and pulverize as fine as possible. Soak that powder with good sharp vinegar, and dry it before the fire or in the sun. Re-soak it as before, with vinegar, and dry as above, repeating this operation a dozen of times. By these means you will have a very good and sharp powder, which turns water instantly to vinegar. It is very convenient to carry in the pocket, especially when traveling.

NEW PAPER.—The first number of the "Somerset Standard," an eight column paper, edited and published by M. M. & W. M Schrock, has been issued. The initial number is a fine specimen of typographical beauty, and evinces more than ordinary editorial ability. It is certainly the neatest paper published at Somerset, and if we may judge from the copy before us, will enrich a department in which the journals of that place have heretofore been sadly deficient, namely, interesting local intelligence. We feel assured that the Messrs. Schrock will print a spicy paper. We welcome them to the editorial fraternity, wish them unlimited success in everything, except politics, which, alas! are the same as in days agone, when, "you were but Jerry and I was but Joe," and when we were wont to go courting the Muse together—we believe that was her name, or "words to that effect"—on the banks of our own native Stony Creek! "Nuf ced," however. Here's our ☞ to success, old boys! "Forever float, that Standard sheet!"

THE PEIGHTAL MURDERERS.—Gotleib Bohner and Albert Von Bordenbourg, who, our readers will no doubt remember, so fiendishly murdered the Peighta family, in Huntingdon county, were tried last week, and found guilty of murder in the first degree, and they will soon be called upon to expiate their crime on the gallows. A few days before the trial the Sheriff received information that the prisoners had made arrangements for their escape, and to accomplish this they had determined, if need be, to kill the keeper of the prison. Upon examining them in their cells, a case knife sharpened on both edges and pointed like a dagger, was found upon the person of one and in the bed of the other. Other evidences of their murderous design were also found, and a third party who is said to have been an accomplice, was arrested and lodged in jail. But for the timely discovery of the hellish plot of these fiends in human form, another victim would have been added to the black list of crime of which these culprits are guilty.

We are indebted to the publishers of the "Mormon Tribune" for a copy of that paper. It purports to be an "organ of the liberal cause in Utah, devoted to social developements." What is meant by "social developement" we cannot divine, unless it refers to the bumps raised on the cranium of the "liege lord" by a half dozen or more refractory and belligerent "strong minded." No such "developement" for us! Let us have peace! We have scanned the paper before us with care, and have studied the doctrine of a multiplicity of wives with religious assiduity, but we are not "almost persuaded" to be a Mormon by a big jug full! We have no desire to be "developed" in that direction. "Oh! no, not for Joseph!"

A PARTING WORD.—We have grown tired of printing duns in this shape. Our friends in arrears are proof against all such missiles. We have, therefore, concluded to try a different plan, of which due notice is hereby given. We are now sending to each delinquent subscriber a statement of his account, with the proposition that if it be paid by Feb. 19, 1870, a certain deduction will be made. If not paid by that time, full rates will be charged, payment enforced by law, and the paper discontinued in all cases of more than one year's arrearage. Upwards of ten thousand dollars of unpaid subscriptions and advertising have accumulated on our books during the last five years. This is a load we cannot carry any longer. Will our friends assist us in lightening it, or must we summon to our aid that vexatious and detestable instrumentality, The Law?

THE MILD WINTER.—Where be those prophets now who warned us last autumn of the coming "cold term?" Shade of the departed Meriam, what a mess those prophets have made of it! What premature shiverings they caused us by their statements about the extraordinary thickness of the new bark on trees; the voluminous wrappings provided by sagacious nature to prevent the ears of maize from being touched with the inevitable hard frosts; and the vast stores of provisions the squirrels—supposed to know all about the weather beforehand—had put in to meet the impending emergency. How disappointed the squirrels must be, and how they must regret that they had not played instead of working during the brief beauties of the last Indian Summer! We trust no one will suspect us of attempting a pun when we say that all attempts to prophecy what kind of weather may be expected for any particular time longer than a day or two are unprofitable, and likely to bring discredit upon those who attempted it.

PENITENTIARY ITEMS.—During the past year Bedford county has had 23 representatives in the institution at Allegheny city. Six have been released, either by pardon or expiration of term, leaving 17 in "durance vile." Eleven have been there the whole year; one 353 days; one 252 days, one, 242 days; four, 109 days; two, 75 days; two, 75 days, and one, 15 days; total, 5,592 days; making the account between Bedford county and the Western Penitentiary stands as follows:—

5,592 days at 25c per day	$1398.00
By labor,	643.08
Bal. due Western Penitentiary	754.92

This bill is smaller than the year before, when our expenses for keeping prisoners in the Penitentiary were over $1,000. It must, however, be added, to the credit of our people, that the great majority of the criminals sent to the Penitentiary from this court, were not residents of this county, but made this the basis of their thieving operations. But eight of the whole number were citizens of this county, four of whom were white and four colored. The majority of the non-residents were sentenced for long terms, in aggravated cases of horse stealing.

A FOUNDLING.—On Saturday evening last a woman stopped off the Cincinnati Express train, east, having in her hand a basket, and a child in her arms. She went to a hotel, and engaged a room where she washed and dressed the child. A short time afterwards she inquired for the residence of Dr. E. J. Greene, and on being told that he resided at his father-in-law's, she went in company with a colored boy to the house. She carried the baby in her arms, and the boy carried the basket. On reaching the house, the woman put the child in the basket, rapped on the door, and left it.—The inmates came to the door, and seeing the basket, opened it, and to their surprise found a beautiful and well-dressed infant, which was not more than three weeks old, and was still living. A note was also found in the basket, that advised the gentleman to keep the child for several years, and he would be well rewarded for his kindness. We believe it is the intention of the gentleman to do as requested, (although there were several other parties who wanted it,) and we can assure the unknown and incomprehensible mother that it will be well cared for.

The following is the substance of the note, which was addressed to Dr. E. J. and Nannie Greene, and was written in a neat lady's handwriting:

"This is not an illegitimate child, but comes to you pure and spotless.—Circumstances over which I have no control compels me to part with it, It was born on Christmas day, and its name is Minnie Bell. Raise it up a Methodist and Good Templar. You will be rewarded in after years for your charity. May God deal with you as you deal with my child."—Huntingdon Globe.

Extraordinary cold weather prevails in the West. Last week in Chicago the thermometer stood 15 degrees below zero, and at noon 8 degrees below. This is in strange contrast with the mild and beautiful weather in this section of country.

PERIODICALS.

THE GALAXY.—The February number of this excellent magazine has reached us and is as full of interesting matter as any of its predecessors. The splendid story, "Put Yourself in his Place," by Charles Reade, is continued in this number. "Brigham Young," "Polly Mariner, Tailoress," "A Hundred years ago," "An Editor's Tales," &c., help to make up the literary matter for February. Altogether the Galaxy is unexcelled by any magazine published in this country.—Will the publishers please send us the January number. We can't do without it.

A USEFUL, ENTERTAINING, AND BEAUTIFUL MAGAZINE.—The February number of Demorest's Monthly presents an extraordinary array of literary novelties, useful items of information, and beautiful illustrations, which almost bewilder us with their profusion. Among the gems in the February number of this model Monthly, is Schiller's "Song of the Bell," illustrated with seven fine and very characteristic engravings; also the fourth plate in the series of Cole's "Voyage of Life," very finely engraved, with much useful and seasonable information on Fashions; also Jenny June's splendid "Talks with women," and numerous other interesting and useful topics. But we must refer the reader to the book itself, as no mere mention will do justice to this model Magazine. Yearly, $3.00, with a splendid engraving as a premium to each subscriber. Address Demorest's Monthly, 838 Broadway, New York.

The February "Riverside" comes freighted with pictures and a wide range of reading matter. Fronting it is an engraving, "Telling Stories by Firelight;" and the fire would go out before the family gathered about it would tire of Mrs. Davis's graphic Irish story, Vieux Moustache's Kentucky story, Mrs. Week's story of "Jake's Wedding" in Minnesota, Cranch's "Father Gander" poems and picture, the directions for swinging Indian Clubs, the interesting "Letter from Egypt," the truly Rural and truly funny Romaunt of the Sleepy Princess, with its droll verses and droller pictures, and the other wise and witty words; not forgetting Hans Andersen's suggestive little Vignette for February, where the days of the week go masquerading: the "Settle," where the children gather to play games and guess riddles; and the "Calendar," with its notable February events. Published by Hurd and Houghton, $2.50 per year; 25 cents each. (Please send us January No.)

THE NURSERY.—The February number of this delightful magazine for young readers, is on our table. It should be in every nursery in the land. The engravings, which are numerous, are the delight of the youngsters, while the reading matter is sure to interest the youthful mind. Our "little ones" could not possibly get along witnout "The Nursery." Terms, 1.50 a year. Address John L. Shorey, 13 Washington Street, Boston.

The storm which swept over the Western States on the 17th inst., appears to have traversed the lakes and their line as far east as the Hudson.—Northern Kentucky suffered terribly. In the vicinity of Cave City the storm became a furious tornado, prostrating every house within a radius of six miles Prewitt's in the same State, was utterly wiped out. Twenty persons were killed, and the destruction of property is immense. At Cincinnati, and at New Albany, Ind., there was a most terrific display of thunder and lightning, and the rain fall is estimated at twenty inches! The same phenomena attended the storm at Nashville, St. Louis and Pittsburg. The flood was unprecedented, extending as far east as the Hudson. Railway travel along the line from Buffalo to Chicago was suspended during the greater part of the 18th inst. But perhaps the most singular of all was the sudden fall of the mercury from forty-two degrees to sixteen degrees below zero. At Chicago it stood at eight degrees below zero at noon of Tuesday, 18th.

DIED.

CUPPET.—On the 10th inst., in New Paris, this county, Mrs. Charlotte Anna, wife of Mr. W H. Cuppet, aged 32 years, 1 month and 9 days. She was loved and respected by all who knew her, and leaves a large circle of friends and acquaintances to mourn her loss. Peace to her ashes. A. H.

BEAVER.—In Napier township, December 31st., 1869, Carrie Belle, infant daughter of Nicholas and Sophia Beaver.

LORILLARD'S "EUREKA" SMOKING TOBACCO is an excellent article of granulated Virginia; wherever introduced it is universally admired. It is put up in handsome muslin bags, in which orders for Meerschaum Pipes are daily packed.

LORILLARD'S YACHT CLUB SMOKING TOBACCO is made of the choicest leaf grown; it is anti-nervous in its effects, as the Nicotine has been extracted; it leaves no disagreeable taste after smoking; it is very mild, light in color and weight, hence one pound will last as long as 1 of ordinary tobacco. In this brand we also pack orders every day for first quality Meerschaum Pipes. Try it and convince yourselves it is all it claims to be, "THE FINEST OF ALL."

LORILLARD'S CENTURY CHEWING TOBACCO. This brand of Fine Cut chewing tobacco has no equal or superior any where. It is without doubt the best chewing tobacco in the country.

LORILLARD'S SNUFFS have now been in general use in the United States over 110 years, and still acknowledged "the best" wherever used.

If your storekeeper does not have these articles for sale, ask him to get them; they are sold by respectable jobbers almost everywhere.

Nervousness, Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits; Mental and Physical Incapacity, resulting from Self-Abuse, &c. By ROBERT J. CULVERWELL, M. D., Author of the "Green Book," &c.

The world-renowned author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of Self-Abuse may be effectually removed without medicine, and without dangerous surgical operations, bougies, instruments, rings, or cordicals, pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself, cheaply, privately and radically. THIS LECTURE WILL PROVE A BOON TO THOUSANDS AND THOUSANDS.

Sent under seal, to any address, in a plain envelope, on the receipt of six cents, or two postage stamps. Also Dr. Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents. Address the Publishers.

HORACE WATERS.

TESTIMONIALS.

The Waters' Pianos are known as among the very best.—N. Y. Evangelist.

We can speak of the merits of the Waters' Pianos from personal knowledge as being of the very best quality.—Christian Intelligencer.

The Waters' Pianos are built of the very best and most thoroughly seasoned material.—Advocate and Journal.

Our friends will find at Mr. Waters' store the very best assortment of Pianos, Melodeons and Organs to be found in the United States.—Graham's Magazine.

MUSICAL DOINGS.—Since Mr. Waters gave up publishing sheet music, he has devoted his whole capital and attention to the manufacture and sale of Pianos and Melodeons. He has just issued a catalogue of his new instruments, giving a new scale of prices, which shows a marked reduction from former rates, and his Pianos have recently been awarded the First Premium at several Fairs. Many people of the present day, who are attracted, if not confused, with the flaming adeertisements of rival piano houses, probably overlook the modest manufacturer like Mr. Waters; but we happen to know that his instruments earned him a good reputation long before Expositions and "Honors" connected therewith were ever thought of; indeed, we have one of Mr. Waters' Pianofortes now in our residence (where it has stood for many years,) of which any manufacturer in the world might well be proud. We have always been delighted with it as a sweet-toned and powerful instrument, and there is no doubt of its durability; more that, this, some of the best amateur player, in the city, as well as several celebrated pianistes have performed on the same piano, and all pronounce it a superior and first-class instrument. Stronger endersement we could not give.—Home Journal. jan15,'69.

1870 "THE WORLD." 1870

The ability of THE WORLD is beyond question—Raleigh (N. C.) Sentinel

We regard it the ablest Democratic newspaper in the nation—St. Joseph (Mo.) Herald.

The New York WORLD the ablest Democratic journal in the United States.—Cincinnati Times.

The leading Democratic journal in the country, and as able as it is eminent, the New York WORLD.—Boston Traveler.

The New York WORLD, the best edited paper on the continent, is wonderfully fertile in good things.—Raleigh Sentinel.

The New York WORLD, the ablest, most influential, and most widely circulated Democratic newspaper in the country.—Syracuse Journal.

THE NEW YORK WORLD.—The WORLD is now beyond question the best newspaper published in New York City.—Courier, East Saginaw, Mich.-Sept., 25, 1869.

We always read The WORLD with hearty admiration of its superior ability, often with warm appreciation of its eloquently uttered sentiments.—Worcester Evening Gazette.

Those who want a Democratic paper will find THE WORLD, on the whole, the smartest, most entertaining, and complete newspaper on that side of the house.—Chronical, Penn Yan, N. Y.

THE WEEKLY WORLD,

a large quarto sheet, printed throughout in large type and published every Wednesday morning, has now the largest circulation of any weekly newspaper in the United States, with possibly, a single exception. Among its prominent features are:

1. Its very full and accurate market reports, embracing the Live Stock markets of New York, Albany, Cambridge, and Philadelphia; and New York Country Produce Market, and General Produce Markets of the country; and full reports of the New York Money Market. Each of the reports are complied with great care, and contain the latest quotations that can be obtained up to the time of putting the paper to press.
2. Its Agricultural Department, which contains each week articles on practical and scientific farming that are of great value to American farmers. A special feature of this department is a weekly summary of the condition of the Hop Markets at home and abroad.
3. A very full report of the proceedings of the Farmers' Club of the American Institute is printed in each issue of the Weekly World, the day after the meeting of the Club. By this arrangement the report appears in the Weekly World one week in advance of its publication in any other weekly paper.
4. A portion of the Weekly World is reserved for family reading matter, including original and selected stories, poems, waifs of humor, and extracts from books and periodicals.—Particular attention will be given to this department during the year 1870.
5. A special feature of the Weekly World is a carefully complied summary of the news of each week. It is made so complete that no one who reads it can fail of being well posted on all the important news of the day.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY WORLD,

published Tuesday and Friday, is a large quarto sheet, containing all the news published in the Daily World, with the exception of such local reports as may be of no interest to non-residents of New York City. Its market reports are as full as those of the Daily edition, and it contain, besides interesting literary matter, on Friday of each week a full report of the Farmers' Club.

THE DAILY WORLD

contains all the news of the day that can be obtained by mail and telegraph from all parts of the world, and the thorough discussions of all topics of interest.

THE WORLD ALMANAC FOR 1870.

"THE WORLD ALMANAC" for 1870 will contain a vast quantity of political information of use to every voter, and of such a character as can be obtained in no other publication. In it will be printed full official returns of every election held in 1869; the vote of New York State by election districts, and Connecticut by towns; the names and dates of each candidate for each branch of the New York Legislature: list of members of the United States Senate and House of Representatives; obituary record and list of important events during the past year. As a compact political manual it will have no equal.

OUR NEW FAMILY SEWING MACHINE.

The superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either Family use or Manufacturing purposes, are so well established and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellences is no longer considered necessary.

OUR NEW FAMILY MACHINE, which has been brought to perfection regardless of time, labor, or expense, is now confidently presented to the public as incomparably the Best Sewing Machine in existence. The machine in question is Simple, Compact, Durable and Beautiful. It is quiet, light running, and never before attempted upon a single Machine,—using either SILK, TWIST, LINEN OR COTTON THREAD, and sewing with equal facility the very finest and coarsest materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner. Its attachments for Hemming, Braiding, Cording, Tucking, Quilting, Felling, Trimming, Binding, etc., are Novel and Practical, and have been invented and adjusted especially for this Machine.
CAPABLE OF PERFORMING A RANGE AND VARIETY OF WORK

New designs of the Unique, Useful, and Popular Folding Tops and Cabinet Cases, peculiar to the Machines manufactured by this Company, have been prepared for enclosing the new Machine.

A faint idea, however, can at best be conveyed through the medium of a (necessarily) limited advertisement; and we therefore urge every person in quest of a Sewing Machine, by all means to examine and test, if they can possibly do so, all the leading rival Machines before making a purchase. A selection can then be made understandingly. Branches or agencies for supplying the "Singer" Machines will be found in nearly every city and town throughout the civilized world, where Machines will be cheerfully exhibited, and any information promptly furnished. Or communications may be addressed to

WONDERFUL PAIN CURE.

A sure remedy for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Growing Pains, Sprains, Bruises, Stiffnes, of the Joints and all similar diseases.

This wonderful remedy is composed entirely of vegetable ingredients. There are no injurious substances used in its manufacture.

For assurance of its excellent properties, read the following certificates:

BEDFORD, May 8, 1869.

I take great pleasure in giving my testimony to the value of "Middleton's Wonderful Pain Cure." I have been a martyr to Rheumatism For two months previous to Feb. 25th, last, I was suffering intensely with pain so severe, that during all that time I had not one night of comfortable sleep. I could not put my hands to my face, could not comb my own hair, nor feed myself; but after having the Pain Cure applied once, I found relief enough to give me comfortable sleep, and with its steady use, I continued to get better, and now at the end of ten weeks from its first application, I have comparatively free use of my hands, sleep well and can attend to business. It has done me more good than all other medicines I have ever used put together, and I cheerfully give this certificate of its value.

ELI M. FISHER.

BEDFORD, April 14, 1869.

Mr. W. W. Middleton,

This is to certify that I was taken with Rheumatism, in my right shoulder, on the evening of the 8th inst., so that I was unable to raise my hand to my face. I got some of your Pain Cure and applied it twice, and was entirely relieved. I would recommend to every one who suffers with Rheumatism to give it a trial and be cured.

Yours &c., A. F. MILLER.

BEDFORD, May 17, 1869.

Mr. Middleton,

DEAR SIR:—I have used several bottles of your medicine in my family, and find it to be all you claim for it. Yours, truly,

JOHN HAFER.

BEDFORD, May 13, 1869.

This is to certify that I have used "Middleton's Pain Cure," for Rheumatism, and was very much benefited by it. JOHN HARRIS.

BEDFORD, May 18, 1869

This is to certify that I have used Middleton's Liniment, for the Rheumatism which I had in my right shoulder so bad that I could not get my hand to my head without great pain, and after a few applications was entirely relieved.

L. F. DART.

BEDFORD, May 1, 1869.

Mr Middleton,

Dear Sir:—Mrs. Bowser was in much suffering for some four weeks with Rheumatism, and got some of your Pain Cure, and the first night I applied it it eased the pain; and after keeping on using it for two weeks, she was restored to health. I feel it to be my duty, as it is a pleasure, to write this recommendation for the benefit of others. JACOB BOWSER

BEDFORD, May 16. 1869.

Mr W. W. Middleton:

Sir—I procured a bottle of your Liniment for Rheumatism, and it gives me great pleasure in saying that after using it for two days, my rheumatism was completely relieved My sister was suffering, at the same time, with Inflamatory Rheumatism in her right hand and wrist—after using it for several days she was relieved. I consider it the best remedy I ever heard of.

JOHN KEEFE

BEDFORD, May 24, 1869.

This is to certify that I have used one bottle of Middleton's Liniment, for Rheumatism, and think it a good cure, and would recommend it to all persons that are afflicted with the above disease.

AUGUSTUS CARVER.

BEDFORD, May 26, 1869.

Mr. Middleton:

Sir—I procured one bottle of your medicine and used one-half of it for Rheumatism, which effected a permanent cure up to this time. I cannot hesitate in saying that it is the best remedy I ever used. A. B. CARN.

This excellent PAIN CURE is prepared only by W. W. MIDDLETON, Bedford, Pa., to whom all orders for the medicine should be addressed.
